

Psalm 139

1. When you read Psalm 139, what is your initial response to the Psalm?
2. When you think about the knowledge of God, what thoughts come to your mind?
3. Which of the three all-seeing, all-present, all-powerful is the most comfortable for you? Which one is the least comfortable? Why?
4. How can one delight in God's vast knowledge? How do you challenge yourself in this area?
5. What is righteous anger towards sin and those who hate God? What is the difference between personal anger and righteous anger?
6. How do we have righteous anger in our lives, yet still share the gospel with those around us?
7. Have you ever taken the time to have God search and know what the Psalmist talks about in verses 23-24?
8. What does it mean to allow God to search and know our hearts?
